Dear Christy,

As discussed in the last meeting, we are planning to organise a large-scale esports tournament with the goal of promoting the industry and fostering a positive perception of competitive gaming among the public.

With an estimated cost of around HK$600,000, we would like to apply for the funding scheme offered by Hong Kong Cyberport, which aims to boost the popularity of esports. Could you please help complete the funding proposal application form for my comments by this Friday?

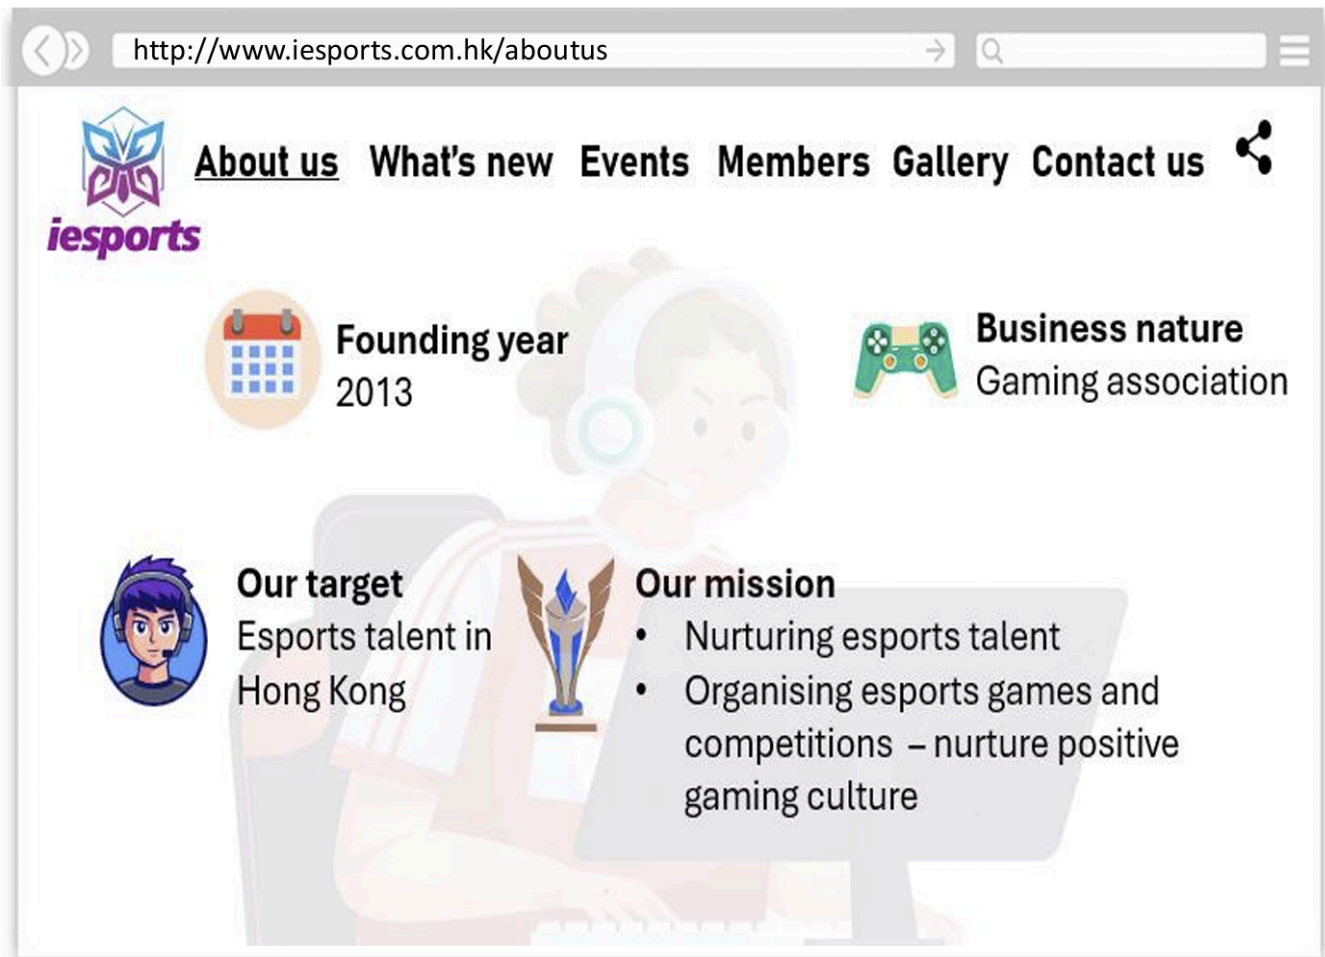

Thank you for your help.

Regards,
Jack
